

Prayer To Break Curses

By Beth Eckert

Lord Jesus, I bring before you every person coming against me, my family, and my ministry right now. In Your word you say, “bless those who curse you and pray for those who hurt you”. So I come before your throne in intercession for every person who has cursed or done evil to me, my family, and my ministry. I bring these people into the throne room with me and say bless them, Lord. Bless their lives, their families, and their homes Lord Jesus.

Turn every curse against me and every evil work upside down so that it turns every work of the enemy on its head. Every curse becomes a blessing in the Kingdom of God. Every work of evil becomes a work of exposing the lies of the devil in this world. Every plan for harm becomes a partnership with God Almighty for His purposes. Every doubt sown becomes hope alive inside them and me. All retaliation becomes joy and love sprouting up in their hearts and mine.

Take every act of the enemy and turn it to good in your Mighty hands Lord. For you are love. So let your love rule in our hearts and minds now, so that my enemies lay down every weapon formed against me and instead bow down to You. Let your love overcome them so that every allegiance with darkness is torn asunder. I proclaim all this in the mighty name of Jesus Christ.
